PRESENTED NEW RULES

What Superintendent, Teachers and Scholars

MUST DO WHILE AT SCHOOL

They Will Be Considered at the Next Meeting—Miss Updegraff Talked on Temperance Instruction—A Certificate and Miss Peters' Salary.

The board of education met last evening in regular session at the Central building with the following members present: Messrs McClain, Murphy, Stevenson, Swan, Vodrey, McGraw, Norris, Mrs. Watson.

The session opened by the reading of the 146th Psalm and invocation by Mr. McClain, after which the minutes of the past meeting were adopted.

The committee on rules and regulations then made a report which consisted of an entire set of rules relative to the government of the several schools.

The rules are many and cover seven pages dealing with every subject imaginable. The superintendent is made the executive officer of the board, and is responsible for the enforcement of the rules. He must inspect the property and report its condition, have charge of instruction and discipline, and be the general manager of the schools. If a pupil is not disposed to obey, he must report it to the board. He has power to suspend pupils, and must prepare a system of blanks for reports. He shall not announce, permit to be announced, or exhibit any matter not connected with the schools. He must make an annual report, fill all vacancies caused by illness or absence of teachers, and treat all the employees of the board with utmost courtesy. In his absence, Central building shall be in charge of the principal.

All teachers must have certificates from the board of examiners, and see that school property is not destroyed. They must be in their rooms 30 minutes before the opening of school, and lock them when leaving. Each teacher is held responsible for the room. Delinquent or disorderly pupils must not be detained over 30 minutes after the others are dismissed. The truant officer must be notified each day of every absent or tardy pupil, and written excuses must be provided. If sick or otherwise detained from school, the teacher must notify the superintendent before the opening of school. A daily record of each scholar in each class must be kept. From 65 to 70 degrees is made the right temperature of the rooms, and teachers must see it is kept at that. Pupils must not be sent on errands during school hours, and the rules respecting scholars must be read every Monday morning. They must go to all teachers' meetings and not allow collections to be taken. Book agents are not allowed in the schools.

Pupils are advanced on a basis of merit, and there must be no boisterous conduct at any time in or about the buildings. If property is broken by accident, it must be made good; if broken maliciously, the pupil must be expelled. They must attend school punctually, be neat and clean and diligent, respectful to visitors, and not use tobacco. If absent three days, or tardy six times in a term the pupil shall be suspended, and if it occurs three times in a term he shall be dealt with according to law. Pupils shall not be excused without request of parents. They must have all necessary books, and no articles not required by school work shall be brought into the room. Pupils absent from examination must remain in the same grade until the next. After being sent to the superintendent pupils can only be admitted to school on a written order from him. Rates of tuition are high school, $3; intermediate, $2.60; primary, $2.40 per month.

Aggrieved parents are not allowed to annoy teachers, but must take their complaints to the superintendent. The rules can be suspended, repealed or amended by a two-thirds vote of the board.

The janitor must scrub the floors at least once a term, wash windows when directed by the superintendent, keep the lawns neatly dressed, care for the flag and report wicked pupils to the superintendent and all supplies received to the clerk.

The truant officer is expected to do as the state law directs.

A rule relating to teachers in part reads: "Each one is requested to read to the pupils the Bible each morning without note or comment." After some debate the rules were laid on the table. A number of amendments will no doubt be made to the rules at the next meeting. At this moment Miss Flo Updegraff asked permission to speak to the board. It was granted. In part she said:

"Gentlemen: I desire to ask your honorable body if scientific temperance is to be taught in the four years high school course, and are the scholars to be examined in this branch the same as in the other studies in the course which is laid out? If so something will have to be done to dispense with one of the other studies. I am willing and ready to do the bidding of this honorable body, but gentlemen, I believe that our study of physiology is sufficient for a course of scientific temperance. There is not another high school in this state or any other in which this is taught, and as a result of this study the reports for the month of February have not been sent out to the parents. I am unable to find the course of this study which has been laid out, and I believe there has not been one. Now, gentlemen, how can it be taught? I have not seen any books treating on this subject, and moreover I do not know of any." Clerk Norris read a list of these books from the minutes of a past meeting, but as yet the board has not purchased any of them.

Continuing, Miss Updegraff said: "In this high school a scholar has no choice of studies which might be more or less beneficial to him after leaving the school. We have a course which was laid out by a former board and adopted by this honorable body, and it is still being carried out. In other high schools, scholars are asked their choice of different classic studies. They select them and are examined in them, but in our school a scholar has but one choice. It seems to me a case of study these or none. I would be pleased if the board would enlighten me upon the question I have asked of it at its earliest pleasure."

The board informed Miss Updegraff they would look into the matter, and advise her in the near future.

The chair called for a report from the building committee. Mr. Norris said he thought it a good plan to rent a room in the Third ward for the overflow of the Grant school. He also said that under the present condition of the school fund it would be folly to start any building at the present time. Mr. McClain stated the East End building needed an annex, but as a number of companies in that locality intended to build, it would not be good policy to build any more to that building until it was seen what the factories intended to do. There was at this point some talk about issuing bonds amounting to $2,500, but it was laid on the table.

The board indulged in a heated debate in reference to Miss Peters and the board of examiners. Mr. Norris at this point said he desired to resign from the committee on teachers, if the board questioned the right of the committee to appoint teachers after the board had given it the power. He said the board of examiners examined Miss Peters, found out her ability, gave her a certificate and then placed her in charge of a class. Mr. McClain said the board had never sanctioned her appointment, and by law, she could not collect any wages for her work until the board had done so. Messrs. Murphy, Vodrey, Swan and Norris, in their debate on this subject, said Mr. McClain was mistaken when he made the assertion that Miss Peters could not collect salary, for this reason: The board appointed a committee to fill vacancies; it did as it was told, and the board could not, under any circumstances, go behind the committee's work. The board of examiners were asked for another return.

In reference to the examiners getting $2.50 a day each, for their work, the matter was carried over.

The granting of two weeks' vacation in April was debated. Mr. McClain said it would save the board about $1,000 by granting it. The money to be saved would be derived from laying the teachers off without pay. The motion was lost, and the meeting adjourned.

WITHDREW THE CHARGE.

The Smith Case Will Not Go Farther.

The case of Mrs. Anna Smith, charged with keeping a disorderly house, was disposed of this morning by Marshal Johnson withdrawing the charge.

Two cases of disorderly conduct were brought to the mayor's notice by the arrest of H. Smith and A. Mathew. The latter had a hearing, was fined $7.60, and sent back to jail until he can gather the amount to set him free. Smith has not as yet had a hearing.

ANOTHER SLIP.

A Portion of the Walker Hill Came Down on the Track.

The heavy rains of the past few days had the usual effect on the hill below Walker, and a large amount of earth came tumbling down on the street railways. Traffic was delayed for a short time, but the force soon cleaned away the slide and traffic was continued. The tons of stuff coming from the hill is very difficult to move.

NO JOY IN THE WORLD

Happiness Can Never Come From Riches.

BREAD COOKED BY SNOWBALLS.

Would Be as Plausible as Happiness Without Religion—Christ Is the Only Balm For Human Wounds—Evangelist Naylor's Sermon.

There was a good audience present at the Methodist Protestant church last evening.

The meeting was opened with a short song service followed by a testimonial service lasting 15 minutes. Reverend Naylor then stated he would not preach a sermon, but would make a few remarks. He said:

"The people are all different. You cannot find any one single person made in the same single mould. There is a diversity in people, in individuality and personality right through the human kin. You never saw two faces exactly alike. The beauty of the religion of Jesus Christ is that it fits all the various natures. It does not matter what kind of an individual a man or woman may be; all we have to do is to put on the conditions. Thus the religion of Jesus Christ suits all kind of people. If the man is a rough man the religion of Jesus Christ can take away all his uncountness; if he is a cultivated man it just suits him; if he is a big man it fills his heart, and it just suits a little man. It does not matter what a man's position may be. You can search three worlds, and you cannot find anything that will make you as happy as the religion of the Lord Jesus Christ. What are men seeking after if it is not happiness? They seek wealth because they think there is happiness in it. When men accumulate a great deal of wealth, what confession do they make? The general confession of wealthy men is that they are miserable, and a great many of them look down on the poor man as a man who lives in a heaven as compared to them. There is another class who attend the theater and dance in search of pleasures, in the hope of getting happiness. Then other people form society circles in the hope of getting real happiness. Do they get what they want? I may say as far as I am concerned 99,000 times no, and I believe 99 people out of 100, if they would speak the truth, would tell you they had failed to get what they were after. I would as soon think it possible to cook bread with snowballs as to get real happiness out of the world. Out of Christ there is no real happiness, no real pleasures. In Christ we have all these. He is the only true balm for human wounds, the only true cordial for human cares. In Christ is found a true resting place. Jesus is your great safety, the only true giver of happiness and joy. Whatever you do let Jesus Christ put you on the King's highway. If you think anything about the eternal question be determined this evening to enter the kingdom of Jesus Christ."

BOTH HANGED.

Jackson Refuses to Give Reasons For Walling's Innocence.

NEWPORT, March 20.—[Special]—2 p. m.—When Governor Bradley heard this morning of the confession made by Jackson he ordered Walling reprieved until he could investigate. He demanded of Jackson the reasons for the statement that Walling was innocent, but the miserable man refused to talk. The governor then ordered that both be hanged, and the sheriff sprung the trap at 11:41 o'clock.

BAD MEN WITH KNIVES

Wanted to Rob W. A. Race In Ravine Street.

HE HAD A GOOD REVOLVER

And the Highwaymen Were Afraid of It. They Ran and One Man Left His Hat. He Can Have It If He Calls on Mr. Race. One Name Is Known.

W. A. Race, the Second street junk dealer, was held up in Ravine street last midnight by three men, but he chanced to have a revolver and succeeded in frightening them so that they ran away in a great hurry.

Race had a check cashed at the First National bank yesterday afternoon, and was at an Avondale street house until a late hour. As he came down Ravine street he saw a party of men standing at the entrance to the alley opposite the china works. They acted in a manner so suspicious that he felt for his revolver, and then walked on as though he knew nothing of their presence.

"Your money or your life!" shouted one of the men as they sprang into the street. Each had a big knife in his hand, but they were not masked.

Race was not all frightened at the demonstration, and putting his hand in his pocket as though to get the money, he drew out his revolver. Leveling it at the head of the nearest highwayman, he was about to fire, when they fled precipitately down the alley. One man was in such haste that he lost his hat, and Race quickly took possession of it. The man's name is in the hat, and Race says he can have it if he calls on him, and nothing will be said. Otherwise the matter will be reported to the police.

LISBON CONVENTION.

Protesting Republicans Make a Demand For Fair Play.

EDITOR NEWS REVIEW.—If you are a believer in fair play, then will you accept the following resolution to your columns. It is the voice of a number of straightout Republicans who were disgusted with the unfair actions of certain members of the late convention assembled at Lisbon, and with the arbitrary and unjust rulings of Chairman Young, who will have full cause to regret his action as the years go by. The following resolution was unanimously adopted at a regular convention, held after the courthouse convention adjourned. A large number of duly elected delegates were present, and officers were elected in due form. The resolution means business, and is backed by men who laugh at opposition and difficulties, confident that justice will eventually win the day:

Resolved, That the chairman of the Republican county executive committee, by his arbitrary action in opening the county convention 30 minutes earlier than the time for which it was called, and transacting important business before many of the members had assembled, deserves the condemnation of all fair-minded men and true Republicans against the high-handed methods that now prevent the Republicans of Columbiana county from participating in the choice of candidates and delegates. We protest, and shall continue to protest.

TOADIX MAY GO WEST.

The Milwaukee Club Would Like to Have Him.

Spotting Life this week says the Milwaukee team is negotiating with Philadelphia for the release of George Carey. Should they succeed in procuring his release, Carey will return to the club with which he made his reputation as a first baseman.

Timothy Twaddle last evening signed his contract with Auburn, N. Y.

James Webber has not as yet decided to accept the offer of Jackson, Mich. Webber is a first baseman of rare ability, and bids fair to be a second Toadix.

The base ball club met last evening, and after much discussion decided to accept the offer of the bridge company to manage them during the season of '97. George Kennedy, the hard hitting second baseman, was unanimously elected captain.

The riders in the bicycle race last evening failed to make very good time, owing to the rain coming through the roof, and for over an hour they were compelled to ride very slow. The score:

DOCTOR LEE'S LECTURE.

It Pleased a Large Audience in Pittsburgh.

Of Doctor Lee's lecture in Pittsburgh last night the Commercial Gazette says: "In spite of the storm, an audience which packed the floor and galleries of the spacious auditorium of the Second Presbyterian church assembled last night to hear the lecture of Rev. Dr. John Lloyd Lee on 'Christ In Art.'"

The doctor, by means of the stereopticon, placed before his audience exact representations of all the great masterpieces of every noted gallery in Europe, accompanying the exhibition with a lecture at once humorous, vivid and intense. A peculiar charm of the lecture was that while it fascinated the most cultured it at the same time held the attention of the little children. Doctor Lee has the ability in a remarkable degree of clothing the most abstruse subject in the simplest words."

A REPRIEVE FOR WALLING.

Jackson Confessed Clearing His Friend of All Blame.

CINCINNATI, March 20.—[Special].—Another scene in the Walling-Jackson matter was enacted this morning, and it was as unexpected as some people believed it true. The men were to be hanged this morning, and at almost the last moment Jackson made a confession to Governor Bradley which clears Walling of any knowledge of the murder of Pearl Bryan. The governor at once ordered the sheriff to proceed with Jackson, and a reprieve was granted Walling until he gets the statement. The news caused the wildest excitement in this place.

NEWPORT, March 20.—[Special].—Walling and Jackson were about to start for the gallows this morning when Jackson broke down, and amid sobs and tears declared that Walling knew nothing of the murder of Pearl Bryan. He was allowed to make his statement, and word was wired Governor Bradley who answered instructing the sheriff to hang Jackson and hold Walling for further orders.

BOTH HANGED.

Jackson Refuses to Give Reasons For Walling's Innocence.

NEWPORT, March 20.—[Special].—2 p. m.—When Governor Bradley heard this morning of the confession made by Jackson he ordered Walling reprieved until he could investigate. He demanded of Jackson the reasons for the statement that Walling was innocent, but the miserable man refused to talk. The governor then ordered that both be hanged, and the sheriff sprung the trap at 11:41 o'clock.

BAD MEN WITH KNIVES

Wanted to Rob W. A. Race In Ravine Street.

HE HAD A GOOD REVOLVER

And the Highwaymen Were Afraid of It. They Ran and One Man Left His Hat. He Can Have It If He Calls on Mr. Race. One Name Is Known.

W. A. Race, the Second street junk dealer, was held up in Ravine street last night by three men, but he chanced to have a revolver and succeeded in frightening them so that they ran away in a great hurry.

Race had a check cashed at the First National bank yesterday afternoon, and was at an Avondale street house until a late hour. As he came down Ravine street he saw a party of men standing at the entrance to the alley opposite the china works. They acted in a manner so suspicious that he felt for his revolver, and then walked on as though he knew nothing of their presence.

"Your money or your life!" shouted one of the men as they sprang into the street. Each had a big knife in his hand, but they were not masked.

Race was not all frightened at the demonstration, and putting his hand in his pocket as though to get the money, he drew out his revolver. Leveling it at the head of the nearest highwayman, he was about to fire, when they fled precipitately down the alley. One man was in such haste that he lost his hat, and Race quickly took possession of it. The man's name is in the hat, and Race says he can have it if he calls on him, and nothing will be said. Otherwise the matter will be reported to the police.

LISBON CONVENTION.

Protesting Republicans Make a Demand For Fair Play.

EDITOR NEWS REVIEW.—If you are a believer in fair play, then will you admit the following resolution to your columns. It is the voice of a number of straightout Republicans who were disgusted with the unfair actions of certain members of the late convention assembled at Lisbon, and with the arbitrary and unjust rulings of Chairman Young, who will have full cause to regret his action as the years go by. The following resolution was unanimously adopted at a regular convention, held after the courthouse convention adjourned. A large number of duly elected delegates were present, and officers were elected in due form. The resolution means business, and is backed by men who laugh at opposition and difficulties, confident that justice will eventually win the day:

Resolved, That the chairman of the Republican county executive committee, by his arbitrary action in opening the county convention 20 minutes earlier than the time for which it was called, and transacting important business before many of the members had assembled, deserves the condemnation of all fair-minded men and true Republicans against the high-handed methods that now prevent the Republicans of Columbiana county from participating in the choice of candidates and delegates. We protest, and shall continue to protest.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., SATURDAY, MARCH 20

THE farmer fares well in the new tariff law. To him it gives the consideration his privations of the last few years merit.

AN anti-Platt organization is being formed in New York under the name of the McKinley league. Well the name is good anyway.

THE Hon. Mr. Bryan seems to have dropped out of public view. Can it be possible that he has at last had the good sense to note the trend of public opinion?

THE Utah legislature thinks more of its newspapers than does the legislature of Ohio. A new bill requires double publication of a retraction three days in mitigation of damages.

COLUMBIANA'S roads are just now in awful condition, and every farmer within 20 miles of East Liverpool is bemoaning the fact. Yet when spring comes the same old system of spending money for improvements for next winter to destroy will be enforced as usual.

NOTHING but commendation will Governor Bushnell receive for refusing to sanction special elections at which members of the legislature are to be elected. Since there will be no need of a legislature until after the next one is chosen in November, the wisdom of the governor's course is readily seen.

THEY say that Calvin S. Brice is spending $100,000 on a house in Lima and much more on the Democrats of Ohio, even going so far as to associate with Johnny McClain, for no other reason than that he has long had a personal difference with Mr. Hanna and hopes to defeat him for the senate. It is not love for his Democratic friends, nor yet of the Washington millionaire, but a mere matter of spite.

TARIFF PROSPECTS.

From present indications all Democratic objections to the tariff bill will be Corbettized in short order. The Republicans are determined to give the country a revenue-prosperity producing tariff, and the old reformers who have not yet found that their doctrine is bosh will soon know they are not allowed to talk the measure to death. The country demands vigorous action, and it looks as though the country shall have it. If by some unforeseen accident the Democrats will prevent the speedy passage of the law, all responsibility for hard times and business disaster will rest with them.

A BUSINESS LIKE SECRETARY.

The new secretary of agriculture is astonishing the farmers. No sooner was he in office than he began to make improvements. He wanted information on the beet industry, and at once sent out a quantity of beet seeds to different parts of the country. When the beets have grown they will be tested by the government, and the best varieties recommended to the farmers. The business like manner in which the new secretary takes hold, prompts the belief that the gentlemen under President McKinley realize that they are not employed by the government for the purpose of display.

TWO VALUABLE LESSONS.

The strongest argument in favor of the restriction of immigration is often found in the immigrants themselves. A few days ago a crowd of Poles at Berea broke into a brewery, and, after stealing beer enough to make them all drunk, began to fight. The scenes enacted baffled description. Another argument comes from the criminal court of Schuylkill county, Pennsylvania, where 50 out of 65 cases of assault and battery were committed by Poles and Huns. And so it will continue to be until this government shall refuse to receive the scum of Europe.

WILL COME UP MONDAY.

Important Cincinnati Case to Be Heard in United States Supreme Court.

CINCINNATI, March 19.—District Attorney Harlan Cleveland has received word that the famous interstate-commerce commission case, which was certified to the United States supreme court by the circuit court of appeals about a month ago would come up for a hearing in Washington on Monday, and as he is to make the opening argument he is asked to be on hand. He will be assisted by Senator Edmunds. The question which the court of appeals certified to the supreme court was whether or not the commission had a right to fix rates. The decision in the matter will be looked for with a good deal of interest.

Bond Issue For Lima.

LIMA, O., March 20.—The citizens have voted on the proposition of issuing bonds to the amount of $25,000 for park purposes, and it carried by 115 against 7. The bonds are to be issued for park purposes, but in reality are for the securing of the shops of the Lima Northern railroad and the enlarging of the Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton shops, for which the citizens contributed $20,000, which amount will now be returned to the donors.

Payment of Bonds Enjoined.

MILLERSBURG, O., March 20.—A suit has been commenced here by M. Kuhn, as plaintiff, enjoining the treasurer and trustees of Millersburg township from the further payment of certain outstanding bonds and interest coupons issued by the trustees in 1893. Forty thousand dollars' worth of these bonds, known as "public improvement bonds," were issued and sold to eastern capitalists.

A Girl Accidentally Killed.

JACKSONVILLE, O., March 20.—Miss Lily Kinder, aged 15, has been accidentally shot and killed by her cousin, aged 17. They were scuffling for the possession of a revolver, which was supposed to be empty. The ball entered her right ear, penetrating both lobes of the brain and passed out on the left side near the top of the head.

Hon. Jerry Brown Resigned.

COLUMBUS, March 20.—Hon. Jerry Brown, the colored ex-Republican from Cuyahoga county, who has been in the mailing department of the secretary of state's office, resigned to accept a position in the office of the insurance company at Cleveland of Senator Hanna, Lahn, Merrick and others.

DR. SWALLOW'S TRIAL.

A Denial of His Charges by the Different Witnesses.

HARRISBURG, March 20.—Dr. S. C. Swallow is on trial in the criminal court on the charge of libel, brought by Representative W. F. Stewart on behalf of himself and the soldiers' orphans' school commission. The usual big crowd was in attendance, but nothing sensational developed. The alleged libel was printed in the Pennsylvania Methodist, of which the defendant is editor and publisher. He made the charge that the "commission paid eightfold more for articles than others could buy them for."

A good part of the session was consumed by the defense in endeavoring to quash the indictment. This failed, and then there was a long fight in getting a jury. The witnesses all denied charges made by the Methodist. They described how supplies were purchased for the schools, claiming that everything was gotten at the lowest market prices. Captain Boyer has done most of the buying since the commission was organized in 1889. He said that groceries were gotten from the leading grocers of Pittsburgh, Harrisburg and Philadelphia. The perishable goods are purchased by the superintendent of the school. Captain Boyer said that was kept upon them, and they were compelled to make monthly reports of everything purchased and the price paid.

Rev. J. A. Waters of Uniontown, James E. Matthews of Harford, and J. M. Clark of the Scotland school, were examined. They all denied the charges, saying that they bought goods in the open market and for the lowest prices.

To Stop Prizefight Pictures.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., March 20.—Representative W. E. Lanoit of Chicago has introduced a bill into the legislature, with an emergency clause attached, which will prohibit, if it becomes a law, the reproduction of pictures of prize-fights and fixes a severe penalty for violating it.

Lamoureux Has Resigned.

WASHINGTON, March 20.—The president has accepted the resignation of Silas W. Lamoureux as commissioner of the general land office. It is quite probable that ex-Congressman Binger Hermann of Oregon will be appointed to the vacancy.

A Negro Riddled With Bullets.

PEARL BRYAN AVENGED

Her Murderers Expiated Her Death Today.

BRADLEY WOULD NOT INTERFERE.

He Considered Their Admission of Administering Medicine For Abortion Crime Enough, Although He Was Satisfied She Was Murdered—The Crime.

NEWPORT, Ky., March 20.—Scott Jackson and Alonzo Walling were hung here today for the murder of Pearl Bryan. Governor Bradley absolutely refused to interfere.

Militia guarded the jail and adjacent premises. An immense crowd of people was in town. The two prisoners were brought here from Alexandria last night.

Inside the cell Walling was told that the last hope was gone. He made no comment on the news, but asked a reporter to come and see him soon. Jackson also heard the fateful news in silence.

Pearl Bryan's headless body was found by a boy going to work on John Lock's farm near Ft. Thomas, Ky., opposite Cincinnati, on Saturday morning, February 1, 1896. A pool of blood was found nearby and blood splashes on the bushes.

Nearby was a No. 3 woman's shoe with a needle toe and a worn rubber overshoe with an opera toe, two tortoise shell and one metallic hairpin. On the body was nothing but a woman's knit union undersuit and over it a thin silk wrapper. A corset lay near on the ground.

Bloodhounds ran to a waterworks reservoir nearby, but the head could not be found, although it was drained. A postmortem examination at Newport disclosed cocaine in the stomach and a five months' old fetus in the womb.

The body lay in the morgue for days without being identified. A shoe dealer recognizing the peculiar last of the shoe, knew it was manufactured in Portsmouth, O. He went to the manufacturer and found that of only a few orders made on that last one went to Lewis & Hayes, Greencastle, Ind. Sheriff Plummer took the shoe to Greencastle, where the firm identified their mark. They had sold only the one pair to Pearl Bryan, the daughter of a highly respectable farmer near the town.

The girl's family identified the girl's clothing and marks about her body. The girl was a social favorite in Greencastle, where the DePaw university is located. She was a graduate of the high school and a worker in the church and Sunday school.

A telegraph operator at Greencastle, an acquaintance of Scott Jackson, and of Pearl Bryan, had learned from Will Wood that Pearl Bryan had left home apologetic, but had gone to Cincinnati at Jackson's request. He told Sheriff Plummer about it, who telegraphed to Cincinnati and ordered Jackson's arrest, where he was a student in a dental college.

Alonzo Walling, his roommate, was also arrested on suspicion that he knew something of the crime. Jackson is 28 and Walling 21.

Will Wood was a second cousin of Pearl Bryan and was the son of Rev. D. M. Wood, presiding elder of the M. E. church of the Greencastle district. He introduced Jackson to the girl, induced her to go to Cincinnati at Jackson's request and saw her off for Cincinnati at the depot. He was placed under arrest, but later released, as there was no evidence connecting him with the murder. He is 20 years old.

Jackson denied that he had seen Pearl Bryan since his visit to Greencastle Jan. 28 and 29. He then said Walling took her to relieve her of her trouble.

Walling said he had seen her Jan. 29 and then Jackson had taken charge of her.

Each said the other murdered her. They both admitted that Feb. 1 they had disposed of her bloody clothing and their own bloody apparel. Each said the other had thrown her head into the river. Jackson's bloody coat was found in a sewer. He said Walling wore it. A pair of Walling's pants were found at the dental college, blood-spattered and muddy. Pearl Bryan's valise was found at a saloon where Jackson had left it.

It was bloody inside, and Jackson said that Pearl Bryan might have been in it. Pearl Bryan's pocket-book and other property were found in Jackson's possession.

George Jackson, a colored coachman, told the police that he had driven two men and a woman to the place where the body was found. He got scared after the start was made, but one of the men on the box with him compelled him to go with a revolver. He identified Walling as the man.

He said they took the woman out of the carriage and walked and ran to Cincinnati.

He drove over the route again with police officials, and identified the carriage and horse which he had been hired to drive.

Later Pearl Bryan's hat and Scott Jackson's handkerchief were found together in the road near Newport. The night clerk of a hotel said that about 4 a. m. the night of the murder Walling engaged a room at the hotel, without registering.

All this testimony was submitted at the trial, which resulted in their conviction.

Perjured evidence was introduced to save the men, but it was proved to be perjury, the witnesses later confessing, and availed the defense nothing.

The defense tried to prove that the girl died of medicine administered for abortion, and then her head was cut off while she was alive, which was shown by the fact that the blood spurted on the leaves and ground where the body lay. If she had been dead at the time the blood would have been coagulated and would not have spurted.

Nothing has ever been found of the head. Pearl Bryan's sister pleaded with Jackson and Walling to tell her where the head was, but each only accused the other.

The men had a chance to leave the Newport jail, when other prisoners escaped, but refused.

WHY BRADLEY REFUSED.

Jackson and Walling Committed Murder Even in Committing Abortion Alone.

FRANKFORT, Ky., March 20.—In his statement refusing to interfere in the Jackson-Walling case, Governor Bradley says in part:

"The common law concerning the crime admitted in the confessions to have been committed is in force in this state. The confessions show that Pearl Bryan was killed by drugs administered to her to perform an abortion. If this is true, she being quick with child, as shown by the evidence, the child was killed also. Her death was caused by drugs deliberately administered, the effect of which clearly manifests an utter disregard for human life.

"The confessions, however, are inconsistent and contradictory, utterly at war with every statement that each of them made on the witness stand. It is urged that this should be overlooked, because they were then swearing for their lives. Conceding that the false statements were made to escape the danger greater it may well be asked how much greater is the danger that is now about them when they stand in the shadow of the gallows. If they are excusable for swearing falsely, then how much more excusable, and how much more likely is it that they would speak falsely now.

"These men have not only trifled with human life, but have trifled with the courts, trifled with the execution and set at defiance the laws of God and man.

"If it be established that criminals, after such conduct, can, by a mere pretended confession, obtain a respite, then every other is entitled to like treatment, and this would result in frustrating justice and bringing the execution of the laws into contempt.

"The wounded hand of Pearl Bryan solemnly and surely points to the fact that she was not dead when beheaded. That would could have been inflicted only when, during the terrible agony of her deception, she raised it in order to ward off the cruel knife. Dr. Wagner is in the asylum and is the man of all others, by reason of his condition, at whose door the defendants would most naturally lay this terrible crime.

"To grant a respite in order that the defendants might be used as witnesses to procure their conviction would result in a delay of at least a year, as experience in the trial of defendants have demonstrated. In view of the various confessions in defendants' statements no jury would, or could, believe any statement that either of them might make, and consequently Wagner would not be convicted.

"Such delay could result in no good, and would only add fuel to the flames, and furnish a further incentive to mob violence in this state."

Dr. Wagner Not Guilty.

NICHOLASVILLE, Ky., March 20.—The statement of Jackson and Walling that Dr. Wagner was implicated in their crime is denied by a brother-in-law, who says that the doctor was here visiting him at the time.

CHANGES TO BE MADE.

Senator Davis Points Out Defects In the Arbitration Treaty.

WASHINGTON, March 20.—The arbitration treaty has again been considered in executive session by the senate. Senator Davis said that as the treaty was originally prepared he was opposed to it, but that as amended he believed it would meet all the objections that had been offered to it.

Speaking of the original document, he said that it was especially objectionable in depriving the senate of the right to participate in the preparation of international agreements which would be equivalent to treaties in their scope and because of the character of the questions involved. He said that such an arrangement would afford an advantage to Great Britain, as that country's entire treaty-making power would pass upon these agreements just as it would upon an original treaty.

He also said that another serious defect would be cured by the elimination of the provision appointing members of the arbitration court bench as permanent members of the proposed board of arbitration as provided for in the amendment for the appointment in their stead of "jurists of repute."

Mr. Stewart announced his opinion that the amendments were inadequate to render the treaty acceptable to the people of this country.

He said the people of this country could not afford to enter into any closer alliance with England than that prevailing.

Senator Turpie said that with the treaty amended as was proposed by the foreign relations committee the senate would be deprived of none of its prerogatives, but that all agreements would necessarily come to the senate for ratification.

This being the case, the treaty would in no sense curtail the right of congress to declare war.

NEW NOMINATIONS CONFIRMED.

Hay and Porter Now Can Wear the Title of Ambassador.

WASHINGTON, March 20.—The senate has confirmed the following nominations:

John Hay of the District of Columbia to be ambassador of the United States to Great Britain; Horace Porter of New York to be ambassador of the United States to France; Henry White of Rhode Island to be secretary of the embassy of the United States to Great Britain.

Charles U. Gordon to be postmaster at Chicago.

Perry S. Heath of Indiana to be first assistant postmaster general.

Lectured by Senator Allen.

WASHINGTON, March 20.—Senator Allen took advantage of the executive session of the senate to lecture that body on its failure to fill the vacancies on the various committees. No reply was made to Senator Allen beyond the statement by Mr. Chandler that as no party had a majority in the senate none could fill the committees without the co-operation of senators from other parties.

TARIFF HAS THE WAY.

Appropriation Bills Passed by the House.

REPUBLICAN PROGRAM ADOPTED.

The Framers Make a Change in the Wool Schedule—Democrats Agree to Have Bailey Make the Minority Report—Senators Consider the Bill.

WASHINGTON, March 20.—The Republican leaders have secured in the house the adoption of a special order fixing the limits of the tariff debate, the regular appropriation bills, which failed to become laws at the last session were passed and sent to the senate, so that, as Mr. Cannon remarked, all the driftwood of the last congress will be swept away before the struggle over the tariff begins. The galleries were thronged and there was hardly a vacant seat on the floor. At times partisan feeling ran high and the hall echoed the cheers of the majority of the opposition as their respective spokesmen made effective points. There were several squabbles among the Democratic leaders which afforded much amusement to the majority. Both Mr. Bland, the silver champion, and Mr. Holman, "the watchdog of the treasury," appeared in their old-time roles.

Mr. Bailey of Texas, who made his debut as the leader of the minority, was favorably received by his side, and announced it to be the policy of the minority not to delay the passage of the tariff bill. Mr. Dingley, the floor leader of the majority, recalled the fact that a dire prophecy of the result of the McKinley bill had been made by Secretary Carlisle, then the leader of the minority, on the occasion of the passage of the McKinley law. The people, he said, had listened to the siren's but their experience during the last four years had made them wiser. A special order was adopted limiting the tariff debate according to the plan heretofore outlined. The rule was carried by a strict party vote—119 to 132—all the opposition save Mr. Howard (Pop., Ala.) voting against it.

A new paragraph has been added to the wool schedule of the tariff bill by the Republicans members of the ways and means committee as follows: "Oriental, Berlin and similar rugs and mats and carpets, woven whole for square yard, 15 cents per square yard and 20 per cent ad valorem; valued at more than 15 cents per square yard, 30 cents per square yard, 30 cents and 20 per cent; valued at more than 60 cents and not more than $1 per square yard, 40 cents and 20 per cent; valued at more than $1 and not more than $2, 80 cents and 25 per cent; more than $2 per square yard, $1.25 and 30 per cent."

The Democratic members of the ways and means committee have held a conference on the question of preparing the minority report on the tariff bill. After a discussion, in which there was much difference of opinion concerning the policy on cotton, wool and sugar, Mr. Bailey of Texas was authorized to make the report.

The Republican members of the finance committee of the senate have commenced the informal examination of the tariff bill. They have decided, but that no hearings will be given to that cardinal attention will be given to printed or typewritten briefs filed with the finance committee relative to proposed changes made by the house bill, or other changes of existing customs laws. Such briefs, they say, should refer to specific paragraphs.

The Republican members will sit as sub-committee and they hope that Senator Jones of Nevada (Silver Republican) will act with them. They will not hold their meetings at the capitol, but will make an effort to maintain strict privacy in their work. The prediction is freely made that their deliberations will result in many important changes and that it will be a very different measure when they finish it from what it now is. The schedules of the bill are generally criticised by senators as too high.

One of the specific objections made is the action of the house committee in raising many articles of raw material from the free list and making them dutiable without reference to the rates on other articles effected, a change which it is declared has resulted in many instances in making the rate on the raw material higher than that on the manufactured product.

Chairman Dingley's report on the new tariff bill follows largely the lines of the explanatory statement on the bill made by Mr. Dingley and printed in these dispatches Tuesday.

DEMAND OF THE DAUNTLESS.

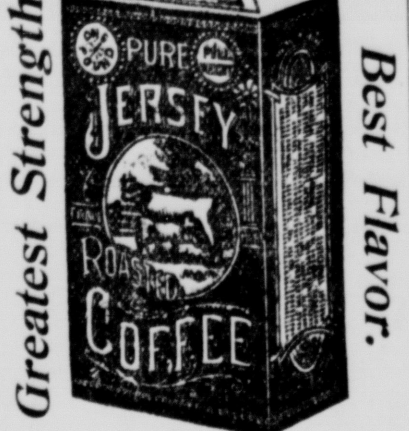

The Cabinet Considers the Application For Clearance to Cuba.

WASHINGTON, March 20.—What action the secretary of the treasury will take with regard to the request of the captain of the Dauntless for clearance from the port of Jacksonville, Fla., giving a port in Cuba as her destination, has not yet been determined. It is believed, however, that the questions involved was discussed at a cabinet meeting and a conclusion reached.

The opinion of the attorney general was requested as to the granting of the request of the Dauntless and his reply has been received. It is not, however, an opinion. It reviews briefly the status of the Dauntless and calls attention to the action which her captain recently brought against the government. The attorney general, upon the request of the president or the head of a department, gives his opinion upon questions of law, but he does not advise as to what action should be taken where the matter is not a question of law and clearly within the discretion of the officer seeking the opinion.

The application of the Dauntless is regarded as a case in point. The secretary of the treasury, it is stated, has the undoubted right to give her clearance or withhold it, if, within his opinion, the required oath as to destination and her intention not to violate the neutrality laws is not given in good faith. It seems certain that the policy of the administration will be to enforce rigidly the law against filibustering expeditions, but whether the government will go further than that remains to be seen.

The farmer fares well in the new tariff law. To him it gives the consideration his privations of the last few years merit.

An anti-Platt organization is being formed in New York under the name of the McKinley league. Well the name is good anyway.

The Hon. Mr. Bryan seems to have dropped out of public view. Can it be possible that he has at last had the good sense to note the trend of public opinion?

The Utah legislature thinks more of its newspapers than does the legislature of Ohio. A new libel law requires double publication of a retraction three days in mitigation of damages.

COLUMBIANA'S roads are just now in awful condition, and every farmer within 30 miles of East Liverpool is bemoaning the fact. Yet when spring comes the same old system of spending money for improvements for next winter to destroy will be enforced as usual.

Nothing but commendation will Governor Bushnell receive for refusing to sanction special elections at which members of the legislature are to be elected. Since there will be no need of a legislature until after the next one is chosen in November, the wisdom of the governor's course is readily seen.

They say that Calvin S. Brice is spending $100,000 on a house in Lima and much more on the Democrats of Ohio, even going so far as to associate with Johnny McClain, for no other reason than that he has long had a personal difference with Mr. Hanna and hopes to defeat him for the senate. It is not love for his Democratic friends, nor yet of the Washington millionaire,
but a mere matter of spite.

TARIFF PROSPECTS.

From present indications all Democratic objections to the tariff bill will be Corbettized in short order. The Republicans are determined to give the country a revenue-prosperity producing tariff, and the old reformers who have not yet found that their doctrine is bosh will soon know they are not allowed to talk the measure to death. The country demands vigorous action, and it looks as though the country shall have it. If by some unforeseen accident the Democrats will prevent the speedy passage of the law, all responsibility for hard times and business disaster will rest with them.

A BUSINESS LIKE SECRETARY.

The new secretary of agriculture is astonishing the farmers. No sooner was he in office than he began to make improvements. He wanted information on the beet industry, and at once sent out a quantity of beet seeds to different parts of the country. When the beets have grown they will be tested by the government, and the best varieties recommended to the farmers. The business like manner in which the new secretary takes hold, prompts the belief that the gentlemen under President McKinley realize that they are not employed by the government for the purpose of display.

TWO VALUABLE LESSONS.

The strongest argument in favor of the restriction of immigration is often found in the immigrants themselves.
A few days ago a crowd of Poles at Berea broke into a brewery, and, after stealing beer enough to make them all drunk, began to fight. The scenes enacted baffled description. Another argument comes from the criminal court of Schuylkill county, Pennsylvania, where 50 out of 65 cases of assault and battery were committed by Poles and Hungarians. And so it will continue to until this government shall refuse to receive the scum of Europe.

WILL COME UP MONDAY.

Important Cincinnati Case to Be Heard
In United States Supreme Court.

CINCINNATI, March 19.—District Attorney Harlan Cleveland has received word that the famous interstate commerce commission case, which was certified to the United States supreme court by the circuit court of appeals about a month ago would come up for a hearing in Washington on Monday, and as he is to make the opening argument he is asked to be on hand.

He will be assisted by Senator Edmunds. The question which the court of appeals certified to the supreme court was whether or not the commission had a right to fix rates. The decision in the matter will be looked for
with a good deal of interest.

Bond Issue For Lima.

LIMA, O., March 20.—The citizens have voted on the proposition of issuing bonds to the amount of $68,000 for park purposes, and it carried, 3,334 for to 115 against. The bonds are to be issued for park purposes, but in reality are for the securing of the shops of the Lima Northern railroad and the enlarging of the Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton shops, for which the citizens contributed 230,000, which amount will now be returned to the donors.

Payment of Bonds Enjoined.

MILLERSBURG, O., March 20.—A suit has been commenced here by M. Kuhn, as plaintiff, enjoining the treasurer and trustees of Hardy township from the further payment of certain outstanding bonds and interest coupons issued by the trustees in 1893. Forty thousand dollars' worth of these bonds, known as "public improvement bonds," were issued and sold to eastern capitalists.

A Girl Accidentally Killed.

JACKSONVILLE, O., March 20.—Miss Lily Kinder, aged 15, has been accidentally shot and killed by her cousin, aged 17. They were scuffling for the possession of a revolver, which was supposed to be empty. The ball entered her right ear, penetrating both lobes of the brain and passed out on the left side near the top of the head.

Hon. Jerry Brown Resigned.

COLUMBUS, March 20.—Hon. Jerry Brown, the colored ex-Republican from Cuyahoga county, who has been in the mailing department of the secretary of state's office, resigned to accept a position in the office of the insurance company at Cleveland of Senator Hanna.
Hahn, Merrick and others.

DR. SWALLOW'S TRIAL.

A Denial of His Charges by the Different Witnesses.

HARRISBURG, March 20.—Dr. S. C.
Swallow is on trial in the criminal court on the charge of libel, brought by Representative W. F. Stewart on behalf of himself and the soldiers' orphans' school commission. The usual big crowd was in attendance, but noting sensational developed. The alleged libel was printed in the Pennsylvania Methodist, of which the defendant is editor and publisher. He made the charge that the "commission paid eightfold more for articles than others could buy them for."

A good part of the session was consumed by the defense in endeavoring to quash the indictment. This failed, and then there was a long fight in getting a jury.

The witnesses all denied charges made by The Methodist. They described how supplies were purchased for the schools, claiming that everything was gotten at the lowest market prices. Captain Boyer has done most of the buying since the commission was organized in 1889. He said that groceries were gotten from the leading grocers of Pittsburgh, Harrisburg and Philadelphia. The perishable goods are purchased by the superintendents of the school. Captain Boyer said tab-was kept upon them, and they were compelled to make monthly reports of everything purchased and the price paid.

Rev. J. A. Waters of Uniontown,
James E. Matthews of Harford, and J.
M. Clark of the Scotland school, were examined. They all denied the charges, saying that they bought goods in the open market and for the lowest prices.

To Stop Prizefight Pictures.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., March 20.—Representative W. E. Lamont of Chicago has introduced a bill into the legislature, with an emergency clause attached,
which will prohibit, if it becomes a law,
the reproduction of pictures of prize-fighting and fixes a severe penalty for violating it.

Lamoureux Has Resigned.

WASHINGTON, March 20.—The president has accepted the resignation of Silas W. Lamoureux as commissioner of the general land office. It is quite probable that ex-Congressman Binger Hermann of Oregon will be appointed to the vacancy.

A Negro Riddled With Bullets.

SCOTTSBORO, Ala., March 20.—A mob of 100 men broke into the county jail and attempted to lynch John Smith, a negro charged with an attempt to assault a white woman. The negro fought furiously and was riddled with bullets in his chest.

THE TONSILINE CO., CANTON, O.

PEARL BRYAN AVENGED

Her Murderers Expiated Her Death Today.

BRADLEY WOULD NOT INTERFERE.

He Considered Their Admission of Administering Medicine For Abortion Crime Enough, Although He Was Satisfied She Was Murdered—The Crime.

NEWPORT, Ky., March 20.—Scott
Jackson and Alonzo Walling were hung here today for the murder of Pearl Bryan. Governor Bradley absolutely refused to interfere.

Militia guarded the jail and adjacent premises. An immense crowd of people was in town. The two prisoners were brought here from Alexandria last night.

Inside the cell Walling was told that the last hope was gone. He made no comment on the news, but asked a reporter to come and see him soon. Jackson also heard the fateful news in silence.

Pearl Bryan's headless body was found by a boy going to work on John Lock's farm near Ft. Thomas, Ky., opposite Cincinnati, on Saturday morning, February 1, 1896. A pool of blood was found nearby and blood splashes on the bushes.

Nearby was a No. 3 woman's shoe with a needle toe and a worn rubber overshoe with an opera toe, two or three strands of blonde hair, two tortoise shell and one metallic hairpin.
On the body was nothing but a woman's knight union undersuit and over it a thin sickroom wrapper. A corset lay near on the ground.

Bloodhounds ran to a waterworks reservoir nearby, but the head could not be found, although it was drained.
A postmortem examination at Newport disclosed cocaine in the stomach and a five months' old fetus in the womb.

The body lay in the morgue for days
without being identified.
A shoe dealer recognizing the peculiar last of the shoe, knew it was manufactured in Portsmouth, O. He went to the manufacturer and found that of only a few orders made on that last one to Lewis & Hayes, Greencastle, Ind. Sheriff Plummer took the shoe to Greencastle, where the first identified their mark. They had sold only the one pair to Pearl Bryan, the daughter of a highly respectable farmer near the town.

The girl's family identified the girl's clothing and marks about her body.
The girl was a social favorite in Greencastle, where the DePauw university is located. She was a graduate of the high school and a worker in the church and Sunday school.
A telegraph operator at Greencastle, an acquaintance of Scott Jackson and of Pearl Bryan, had learned from Will Wood that Pearl Bryan had left home ostensibly to visit relatives in Indianapolis, but had gone to Cincinnati at Jackson's request. He told Sheriff Plummer about it, who telegraphed to Cincinnati and ordered Jackson's arrest, where he was a student in a dental college.

A telegraph Walling, his roommate, was also arrested on suspicion that he knew something of the crime. Jackson is 28 and Walling 21.

Will Wood was a second cousin of Pearl Bryan and was the son of Rev.
D. M. Wood, presiding elder of the M. E.
church of the Greencastle district.
He introduced Jackson to the girl, induced her to go to Cincinnati at Jackson's request and saw her off for Cincinnati at the depot. He was placed under arrest, but later released, as
there was no evidence connecting him
with the murder. He is 20 years old.

Jackson denied that he had seen Pearl
Bryan since his visit to Greencastle Jan. 2, but later said he had been with her in Cincinnati Jan. 28 and 29. He then said Walling took her to relieve her of her trouble.

Walling said he had seen her Jan. 29 and then Jackson had taken charge of her.

Each said the other murdered her.
They both admitted that Feb. 1 they had disposed of her bloody clothing and their own bloody apparel. Each said the other had thrown her head into the river. Jackson's bloody coat was found in a sewer. He said Walling wore it. A postmortem examination was made and saw her off for Cincinnati at the depot. He was placed under arrest, but later released, as
there was no evidence connecting him
with the murder. He is 20 years old.

It was bloody inside, and Jackson said that Pearl Bryan's head might have been in it. Pearl Bryan's pocketbook and other property were found in Jackson's possession.

George Jackson, a colored coachman, told the police that he had driven two men and a woman to the place where the body was found. He got scared after the start was made, but one of the men on the box with him compelled him to go with a revolver. He identified Walling as the man.

He said they took the woman out of the carriage and disappeared. He heard a noise, got scared, and walked and ran to Cincinnati.

He drove over the route again with police officials, and identified the carriage and horse which he had been hired to drive.

Later Pearl Bryan's hat and Scott Jackson's handkerchief were found together in the road near Newport.
The night clerk of a hotel said that about 3 a. m. the night of the murder Walling engaged a room at the hotel, without registering.

All this testimony was submitted at the trial, which resulted in their conviction.
Perjured evidence was introduced to save the men, but it was proved to be perjury, the witnesses later confessing, and availed the defense nothing.

The defense tried to prove that the girl died of medicine administered for abortion, and then her head was cut off. Experts testified that her head was cut off while she was alive, which was shown by the fact that the blood spurted on the leaves and ground where the body lay. If she had been dead at the time the blood would have been coagulated and would not have spurted.

Nothing has ever been found of the head. Pearl Bryan's sister pleaded with Jackson and Walling to tell her

where the head was, but each only accused the other.

The men had a chance to leave the Newport jail, when other prisoners escaped, but refused.

WHY BRADLEY REFUSED.

Jackson and Walling Committed Murder
Even in Committing Abortion Alone.

FRANKFORT, Ky., March 20.—In his statement refusing to interfere in the Jackson-Walling case, Governor Bradley says in part:

"The common law concerning the crime admitted in the confessions to have been committed is in force in this state. The confessions show that Pearl Bryan was killed by drugs administered to her to perform an abortion. If this is true, she being quick with child, as shown by the evidence, the child was killed as well. Her death was caused by drugs deliberately administered, the effect of which clearly manifests an utter disregard for human life.

"The confessions, however, are inconsistent and contradictory, utterly at variance with every statement that each of them made on the witness stand. It is urged that this should be overlooked, because they were then swearing for their lives. Conceding that the false statements were made to escape the danger of pending death, may well be asked how much greater is the danger that is now about them when they stand in the shadow of the gallows. If they are excusable for swearing falsely, then how much more excusable, and how much more likely is it that they would speak falsely now.

"These men have not only trifled with human life, but have trifled with the courts, trifled with the execution and set at defiance the laws of God and man.

"If it be established that criminals,
after such conduct, can, by a mere pretended confession, obtain a respite, then every other is entitled to like treatment, and this would result in frustrating justice and bringing the execution of the laws into contempt.

"The wounded hand of Pearl Bryan solemnly and surely points to the fact that she was not dead when beheaded.
"That would could have been inflicted only when, during the terrible agony of her decapitation, she raised it in order to ward off the cruel knife.

"Dr. Wagner is in the asylum and is the man of all others, by reason of his condition, at whose door the defendants would most naturally lay this terrible crime.

"To grant a respite in order that the defendants might be used as witnesses to procure their conviction would result in a delay of at least a year, as experience in the trial of defendants have demonstrated. In view of the various conflicts in defendants' statements no jury would, or could, believe any statement that either of them might make,
and consequently Wagner would not be convicted.

"Such delay could result in no good,
and would only add fuel to the flames,
and furnish a further incentive to mob violence in this state."

"The respite is refused."

Dr. Wagner Not Guilty.

NICHOLANSVILLE, Ky., March 20.—The statement of Jackson and Walling that Dr. Wagner was implicated in their crime is denied by a brother-in-law, who says that the doctor was here visiting him at the time.

CHANGES TO BE MADE.

Senator Davis Points Out Defects In the Arbitration Treaty.

WASHINGTON, March 20.—The arbitration treaty has again been considered in executive session by the senate.
Senator Davis said that as the treaty was originally prepared he was opposed to it, but that as amended he believed it would meet all the objections that had been offered to it.

Speaking of the original document, he said that it was especially objectionable in depriving the senate of the right to participate in the preparation of international agreements which would be equivalent to treaties in their scope and because of the character of the questions involved. He said that such an arrangement would afford an advantage to Great Britain, as that country's entire treaty-making power would pass over these agreements just as it would upon an original treaty.

He also said that another serious defect would be cured by the elimination of the provision appointing members of the supreme court bench as permanent members of the proposed board of arbitration as provided for in the amendment for the appointment in their stead of "jurists of repute."

Mr. Stewart announced his opinion that the amendments were inadequate to render the treaty acceptable to the people of this country.

He said the people of this country could not afford to enter into any closer alliance with England than that prevailing.

Senator Turpie said that with the treaty amended as was proposed by the foreign relations committee the senate could be deprived of none of its prerogatives, but that all agreements would necessarily come to the senate for ratification.

This being the case, the treaty would
in no sense curtail the right of congress to declare war.

Hay and Porter Now Can Wear the Title of Ambassador.

WASHINGTON, March 20.—The senate has confirmed the following nominations:

John Hay of the District of Columbia to be ambassador of the United States to Great Britain; Horace Porter of New York to be ambassador of the United States to France; Henry White of Rhode Island to be secretary of the embassy of the United States to Great Britain.

Charles U. Gordon to be postmaster at Chicago.

Perry S. Heath of Indiana to be first assistant postmaster general.

Lectured by Senator Allen.

WASHINGTON, March 20.—Senator Allen took advantage of the executive session of the senate to lecture that body on its failure to fill the vacancies on the various committees. No reply was made to Senator Allen beyond the statement by Mr. Chandler that as no party had a majority in the senate none could fill the committees without the co-operation of senators from other parties.

TARIFF HAS THE WAY.

Appropriation Bills Passed by the House.

REPUBLICAN PROGRAM ADOPTED.

The Framers Make a Change in the Wool Schedule—Democrats Agree to Have Bailey Make the Minority Report—Senators Consider the Bill.

WASHINGTON, March 20.—The Republican leaders have secured in the house the adoption of a special order fixing the limits of the tariff debate, the regular appropriation bills, which failed to become laws at the last session were passed and sent to the senate, so that, as Mr. Cannon remarked, all the driftwood of the last congress will be swept away before the struggle over the tariff begins. The galleries were thronged and there was hardly a vacant seat on the floor. At times partisan feeling ran high and the hall echoed the cheers of the majority of the opposition as their respective spokesmen made effective points. There were several squabbles among the Democratic leaders which afforded much amusement to the majority. Both Mr. Bland, the silver champion, and Mr. Holman,
"the watchdog of the treasury," appeared in their old-time roles.

Mr. Bailey of Texas, who made his debut as the leader of the minority, was favorably received by his side, and announced it to be the policy of the minority not to delay the passage of the tariff bill. Mr. Dingley, the floor leader of the majority, recalled the fact that a dire prophecy of the result of the Mc-Kinley bill had been made by Secretary Carlisle, then the leader of the minority, on the occasion of the passage of the McKinley law. The people, he said, had listened to the siren's but their experience during the last four years had made them wiser. A special order was adopted limiting the tariff debate according to the plan heretofore outlined.
The rule was carried by a strict party vote—179 to 132—all the opposition save Mr. Howard (Pop., Ala.) voting against it.

A new paragraph has been added to the wool schedule of the tariff bill by the Republicans members of the ways and means committee, as follows:
"Oriental, Berlin and similar rugs and carpets, woven whole for rooms, valued at not less than 30 cents per square yard, 15 cents per square yard and 20 per cent ad valorem; valued at more than 30 and not more than 60 cents per square yard, 30 cents and 20 per cent; valued at more than 60 cents and not more than $1 per square yard, 40 cents and 20 per cent; valued at more than $1 and not more than $2, 80 cents and 25 per cent; more than $2, per square yard, $1.25 and 30 per cent."

The Democratic members of the ways and means committee have held a conference on the question of preparing the minority report on the tariff bill. After a discussion, in which there was much difference of opinion concerning the policy on cotton, wool and sugar, Mr.
Bailey of Texas was authorized to make the report.

The Republican members of the finance committee of the senate have commenced the informal examination of the tariff bill. They have decided that no hearings will be granted, but that careful attention will be given to printed or typewritten briefs filed with the finance committee relative to proposed changes made by the house bill, or other changes of existing customs laws. Such briefs, they say, should refer to specific paragraphs.

The Republican members will sit as sub-committee and they hope that Senator Jones of Nevada (Silver Republican) will act with them. They will not hold their meetings at the capitol, but will make an effort to maintain strict privacy in their work. The prediction is freely made that their deliberations will result in many important changes and that it will be a very different measure when they finish it from what it now is. The schedules of the bill are generally criticised by senators as too high.

One of the specific objections made is the action of the house committee in removing many articles of raw material from the free list and making them dutiable without reference to the rates on other articles effected, a change which it is declared has resulted in many instances in making the rate on the raw material higher than that on the manufactured product.

Chairman Dingley's report on the new tariff bill follows largely the lines of the explanatory statement on the bill made by Mr. Dingley and printed in these dispatches Tuesday.

DEMAND OF THE DAUNTLESS.

The Cabinet Considers the Application
For Clearance to Cuba.

WASHINGTON, March 20.—What action the secretary of the treasury will take with regard to the request of the captain of the Dauntless for clearance from the port of Jacksonville, Fla., giving a port in Cuba as her destination, has not yet been determined. It is believed, however, that the questions involved was discussed at a cabinet meeting and a conclusion reached.

The opinion of the attorney general was requested as to the granting of the request of the Dauntless and his reply has been received. It is not, however, an opinion. It reviews briefly the status of the Dauntless and calls attention to the action which her captain recently brought against the government. The attorney general, upon the request of the president or the head of a department, gives his opinion upon questions of law, but he does not advise as to what action should be taken where the matter is not a question of law and clearly within the discretion of the officer seeking the opinion.

The application of the Dauntless is regarded as a case in point. The secretary of the treasury, it is stated, has the undoubted right to give her clearance or withhold it, if, within his opinion, the required oath as to destination and her intention not to violate the neutrality laws is not given in good faith. It seems certain that the policy of the administration will be to enforce rigidly the law against filibustering expeditions, but whether the government will go farther than that remains to be seen.

THE LEVEES TOO LOW.

Flooded Mississippi Threatens to Go Over Them.

THERE IS NO HOPE OF CESSATION.

The Upper Valleys Are Flooded and Heavy Rains Prevail—The Levee Cut Near Caruthersville, Mo.—More Lives Lost—Work of Rescue.

MEMPHIS, March 20.—Two negroes have lost their lives as a result of the great flood, which engulfs hundreds of acres of land in the Arkansas bottoms. The two men were drowned in Fifteen Mile bayou, near Marion, Ark. There was no cessation in the rise of the river. It is rising at all points above and below. Heavy rains continue.

At Marked Tree, Ark., on the St. Francis river, there has been a deplorable rise, because this river swells the great volume of water in the Mississippi where conditions are already so distressing.

The gloomiest feature of the distressing conditions is the fact that there is little or no hope of the abatement of the high water within the near future because of floods reported in the upper valleys.

The most alarming reports concerning the condition of the levees above and below Memphis have been in circulation in Memphis, but they have particular reference to the levees below this point and even below Helena. The levees are in most places built to extend three or four feet above the highest water mark in the locality where they are constructed. It seems now that this allowance of altitude has about been consumed by the rising water. Up to this time the people have exerted their utmost strength to solidify and preserve the levees, believing that by careful watching and by applying remedial measures whenever there was a prospect of a break, disaster could be averted. But reports from down the river indicate that hope has been lost in many places.

There is very reliable information to the effect that at Modoc, Avenue, Higgins and other points below Helena the water has gone over the levee, and the levees being in such a flimsy condition from the rains it is not thought possible to protect them much longer from the ever rising flood. The people living behind the dikes in the localities mentioned are already flying for their lives. The hundreds of men who had been at work watching the levees have about all been taken away and their labor will be utilized in saving the lives of other people.

There is positive information that the levee constructed under the direction of the St. Francis levee board near Caruthersville, Mo., has been cut, and the belief is prevalent in that locality that the work was done by persons living on the Tennessee side, who hoped by making an opening for the flood on the Arkansas side to decrease the flood and thus save the property on the Tennessee side.

Hundreds of refugees have been landed here by the relief steamers and are being cared for by the relief committee.

A report is current that of the levee having broken at Hill House, Miss., flooding the fine farms in that locality.

A Flood at Fondulac. FONDULAC, Wis., March 20.—Half of this city is under water. Both branches of the Fond du Lac river are gaged and water is pouring over the banks in floods and covers the territory on either side of the river for blocks.

REVOLT IN CONSTANTINOPLE. Greek Residents Said to Be Plotting to Seize the City.

LONDON, March 20.—A special dispatch from Galatz, Roumania, says it is announced there in Greek circles that a plot is being hatched among the Greeks at Constantinople, where there are 30,000 well armed Greeks living, to revolt against the government.

It is added that there are few Turkish troops now at Constantinople, except the sultan's bodyguard, and that it would be impossible to hurriedly recall troops from the Greek frontier in the event of a revolt at Constantinople.

ATHENS, March 20.—The Greek government has decided to recall the gunboats Alpheios and Pinios from Cretan waters. The former is now coaling at Corio.

An engagement is expected at Mentze, on the frontier of Thessaly, owing to the reinforcing of the Turkish garrison there.

DUN'S REVIEW OF TRADE.

Business Steadily Increasing. *et Is Disappointing.

NEW YORK, March 20.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s Weekly Review of Trade, issued today, says: Though steadily increasing, business is still much below its volume in former years of prosperity and many express disappointment. Yet there is some gain every week, with more hands at work and more mills in operation, and the sure result, large purchases for consumption, cannot be long delayed. In some branches it is felt already; there is larger distribution of finished products and the demand for commercial loans has sharply increased, and especially in drygoods and the iron and steel branches.

The progress of the iron and steel industry is hindered by uncertainty regarding the cost of lake ore for the coming year, though the reported adjournment of producers' meeting is interpreted as evidence that an agreement will be ultimately reached. It is reported that Norris ore at $2.75 will be taken as the basis, which would imply about $2.05 for mesabie ores, but until the question has been settled many important transactions are deferred. While there is no great activity in finished products the demand steadily increases. Contracts for several great buildings at Chicago are pending, and for a good many bridges and other railroad works, and the demand for wire nails and for wire does not abate, nor the demand for black sheets required in tin plate manufacture.

The buying of wool, mainly of a speculative character in expectation of new duties, continues remarkably large. Sales at the three chief markets for the past week were 10,891,900 pounds, and for three weeks have been 28,735,800 pounds, of which 16,628,200 pounds were domestic, whereas, the largest transactions in any previous year at this season were 17,105,876 pounds in the corresponding weeks of 1892, of which 11,886,626 pounds were domestic. No great increase has yet appeared in the demand for goods, although a few more mills have found enough orders to start, perhaps, in part, anticipating a future demand. The expectation of new duties does not yet influence the goods markets, as might be expected.

The demand for wheat has not given much help to speculation. Atlantic exports have been only 1,263,390 bushels against 1,199,335 bushels, flour included, for the corresponding week last year, while western receipts have been only 1,267,346 bushels, against 2,416,089 bushels last year. Accounts regarding the coming crop have been less favorable this week and the price has advanced 1 1/2 cents. The exports of corn continue heavy, 4,543,705 bushels for the week and quotations have advanced seven-eighths.

Failures for the week have been 216 in the United States, against 261 last year, and 50 in Canada, against 49 last year.

Corbett Says Bob Was Down Once 12 Seconds.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 20.—In fashionable attire, with no external marks of pugilistic defeat, but debonair and smiling, as if he had just won a great victory, James J. Corbett, ex-champion, has paraded the streets and made his appearance in well-known resorts with a coterie of admiring friends. Of his plans for the future Corbett said: "I won't make any move until Brady arrives. I see he is trying to get another match with Julian, but I hardly think they will give another chance. I don't care a snap about the championship. Fitzsimmons can call himself champion—and I suppose he is—but this does not annoy me. What I am after is another battle."

He showed them his disabled hands, which were swollen to twice their normal size. "That was all done in the sixth round," said he. "If they had not gone back on me I would have finished him in the seventh. That is why I had no steam."

Corbett expresses the opinion that Fitzsimmons was down 12 seconds when he fell in the sixth round. "You can bet all you have in, said he, that he was out more than 10 seconds. Scores of men will back me up, but the decision is made and there is no use kicking."

At a theater, where Corbett went, the ex-champion was cheered so lustily that he was invited to the stage and made a speech.

WORK OF THE SENATE.

Addicks' Claim Reappears—Oregon's Governor Heard From.

WASHINGTON, March 20.—The claim of J. Edward Addicks to a seat as senator from Delaware has made its reappearance by a petition from Mr. Addicks, presented by Mr. Burrows (Rep., Mich.).

Following this Mr. Chandler (Rep., N. H.) presented a memorial from Governor W. P. Lord and the secretary of state of Oregon detailing the circumstances of the recent failure of the legislature of that state to organize and elect a senator. The document stated that as a result of this failure no session of the Oregon legislature has been held since February, 1895. The purpose of the memorial was to establish the right of the governor to appoint a senator. The memorial, like Mr. Addicks' petition, was referred to the committee on privileges and elections.

The early opening of the tariff work in the senate was indicated by the agreement to a resolution for the preparation of a comparative statement on revenue questions and for an increase of the clerical staff of the finance committee.

In the Original Survey of the Old Cemetery.

MUCH LAND HAS DISAPPEARED

Engineer George Cannot Tell How Many Bodies Have Gone, and the Old Plat Cannot Be Found—A Wide Strip Slipped Away.

Engineer George has completed his survey of the old cemetery, and found a condition which even those people who believed themselves well informed will admit is surprising.

But one point in the original survey was found, that is in the line from Fourth to Sixth street, and fortunately this was at the end of Fifth street. He found that a strip varying from 14 to 35 feet in width had gone over the bank. In that part where the greatest number of graves have been destroyed, the missing piece is about 30 feet wide. The ground is still slipping away, and the engineer is not sure but what the point he used yesterday has by this time disappeared. Mr. George has no way of telling the number of graves that have disappeared, nor can he tell until the original plat is present. Diligent search has to the present failed to discover it. At one point gravel is still being taken out of the hill for the plaster works, but the company own the ground. The only reason for the disappearance of the bank can be traced to the removal of that portion which acted as its support.

CAN'T MAKE A MISTAKE.

All you have to do is to take your Neighbor's Advice and Promptly Act on it.

Our readers have no excuse for going astray. The way is almost fenced with guide posts in East Liverpool! They are on every highway and byway. "He that runs may read." Investigate this example. Any day you can notice a cart running too and from the Post Office driven by a letter carrier. It's the only one in the city, so you can't make a mistake. It's occupant's name is Mr. Henry Bevington. His residence is at the corner of Avondale and Bradshaw avenue. Walk out there and interview Mrs. Bevington about Doan's Kidney Pills.

You can't make any mistake about following her advice. She says: "During the last three years I have been troubled with my kidneys, having a dull steady aching pain in the back. When stooping over or sitting for some time it would change to quick pang as I arose to an upright position. My back tired out easily when walking or standing long and I often had headaches, dizziness and in the morning great depression. I have taken medicines, many of them, but have found Doan's Kidney Pills that I got at W. and W. Pharmacy to be more suitable for my complaint than anything I ever tried. I have no trouble with my back, do not have the headache as I did, rest well, feel refreshed in the morning and get up earlier than I did before taking them. I give Doan's Kidney Pills credit for my better health and advise others to use them as I am sure they will find them up to their representation." Doan's Kidney Pills are for sale by all dealers. Engineer George Cannot Tell How Many Bodies Have Gone, and the Old Flat Cannot Be Found—A Wide Strip Slipped Away.

Engineer George has completed his survey of the old cemetery, and found a condition which even those people who believed themselves well informed will admit is surprising.

But one point in the original survey was found, that is in the line from Fourth to Sixth street, and fortunately this was at the end of Fifth street. He found that a strip varying from 14 to 35 feet in width had gone over the bank. In that part where the greatest number of graves have been destroyed, the missing piece is about 30 feet wide. The ground is still slipping away, and the engineer is not sure but what the point he used yesterday has by this time disappeared. Mr. George has no way of telling the number of graves that have disappeared, nor can he tell until the original plat is found. Diligent search has to the present failed to discover it. At one point gravel is still being taken out of the hill for the plaster works, but the company own the ground. The only reason for the disappearance of the bank can be traced to the removal of that portion which acted as its support.

The Slide at Walker Did Not Interfere With Traffic.

Travelers on the car line need have no fear of a crash at Walker, although a couple of tons of dirt came down last night. Everything is checked above the slide, and since the rain has ceased there is no danger of the loose matter coming. Last night, for fear of a slide, a couple of cars were left on this end of the line, but they were not needed.

CAN'T MAKE A MISTAKE.

All you have to do is to take your Neighbor's Advice and Promptly Act on it.

Our readers have no excuse for going astray. The way is almost fenced with guide posts in East Liverpool! They are on every highway and byway "He that runs may read." Investigate this example. Any day you can notice a cart running too and from the Post Office driven by a letter carrier. It's the only one in the city, so you can't make a mistake. It's occupant's name is Mr. Henry Bevington. His residence is at the corner of Avondale and Bradshaw avenue. Walk out there and interview Mrs. Bevington about Doan's Kidney Pills.

You can't make any mistake about following her advice. She says: "During the last three years I have been troubled with my kidneys, having a dull steady aching pain in the back. When stooping over or sitting for some time it would change to quick pang as I rose to an upright position. My back tired out easily when walking or standing long and I often had headaches, dizziness and in the morning great depression. I have taken medicines, many of them, but have found Doan's Kidney Pills that I got at W. and W. Pharmacy to be more suitable for my complaint than anything I ever tried. I have no trouble with my back, do not have the headache as I did, rest well, feel refreshed in the morning and get up earlier than I did before taking them. I give Doan's Kidney Pills credit for my better health and advise others to use them as I am sure they will find them up to their representation."

Doan's Kidney Pills are for sale by all dealers. Price, 50 cents per box. Sent by mail on receipt of price by Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.
